

I am writing to express my concern over the impact of BPL on current users of the high frequency spectrum. It is clear from the analysis performed by the ARRL that implementation of this technology will cause unacceptable disruption to licensed users (amateur, government, and emergency services). It is thus apparent to me that this technology should not be allowed to be deployed in this country.